MEMO ENDORSED

Re: Alan Seward v. Det. Camilo R. Antonini, et al, No. 20-cv-9251 (KMK) (PED)

Dear Judge Karas:

Plaintiff respectfully moves the Court for permission to file under seal three exhibits in opposition to Defendants' motion for partial summary judgment. The exhibits consist of: (1) Defendant, Robert Puff's ("Defendant Puff") unredacted search warrant affidavit for search of Alan Seward; (2) Defendant Puff's text message communications with a confidential informant; and (3) Mount Vernon Police Department receipts pertaining to drug purchases by the confidential informant. According to Defendants, the documents contain sensitive information pertaining to law enforcement techniques and to the confidential informant, and therefore should be filed under seal. In advance of filing this motion, Plaintiff has conferred with counsel for Defendants and Defendants do not oppose Plaintiff's motion to file the three exhibits under seal.

Thank you for your attention in this matter.

Sincerely,

Heather Lewis Donnell
